THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1771.

From the LONDON EVENING-POST, June 22, 1771.

To his Grace the Duke of GRAFTON.

My Lord,

THE profound reſpect I bear to the gracious Prince, who governs this country, with no leſs honour to himſelf than ſatisfaction to his ſubjects, and who reſtores you to your rank under his ſtandard, will ſave you from a multitude of reproaches. The attention I ſhould have paid to your failings is involuntarily attracted to the hand that rewards them; and though I am not ſo partial to the Royal judgment, as to affirm, that the favour of a King can remove mountains of infamy, it ſerves to leſſen at leaſt, for undoubtedly it divides the burthen. While I remember how much is due to his ſacred character, I cannot, with any decent appearance of propriety, call you the meaneſt and the baſeſt fellow in the kingdom. I proteſt, my Lord, I do not think you ſo. You will have a dangerous rival, in that kind of fame to which you have hitherto ſo happily directed your ambition, as long as there is one man living, who thinks you worthy of his confidence, and fit to be truſted with any ſhare in his government. I confeſs you have great intrinſic merit; but take care you do not value it too highly. Conſider how much of it would have been loſt to the world, if the King had not graciouſly affixed his ſtamp, and given it currency among his ſubjects. If it be true, that a virtuous man, ſtruggling with adverſity, be a ſcene worthy of the gods, the glorious contention between you and the beſt of Princes, deſerves an audience equally reſpectable. I think I already ſee other gods riſing from the earth to behold it.

But this language is too mild for the occaſion. The King is determined, that our abilities ſhall not be loſt to ſociety. The perpetration and deſcription of new crimes will find employment for us both. My Lord, if the perſons, who have been loudeſt in their profeſſions of patriotiſm, had done their duty to the public, with the ſame zeal and perſeverance that I did, I will not aſſert that Government would have recovered its dignity, but at leaſt our gracious Sovereign muſt have ſpared his ſubjects this laſt inſult, which, if there be any feeling left among us, they will reſent more than even the real injuries they received from every meaſure of your Grace's Adminiſtration. In vain would he have looked round him for another character ſo conſummate as your's. Lord Manſfield ſhrinks from his principles;---his ideas of Government, perhaps, go farther than your own, but his heart diſgraces the theory of his underſtanding.---Charles Fox is yet in bloſſom; and as for Mr. Wedderburne, there is ſomething about him, which even treachery cannot truſt. For the preſent, therefore, the beſt of Princes muſt have contented himſelf with Lord Sandwich.----You would long ſince have received your final diſmiſſion and reward; and I, my Lord, who do not eſteem you the more for the high office you poſſeſs, would willingly have followed you to your retirement. There is ſurely ſomething ſingularly benevolent in the character of our Sovereign. From the moment he aſcended the Throne, there is no crime, of which human nature is capable, (and I call upon the Recorder to witneſs it,) that has not appeared venial in his ſight. With any other Prince, the ſhameful deſertion of him, in the midſt of that diſtreſs, which you alone had created,---in the very criſis of danger, when he fancied he ſaw the Throne already ſurrounded by men of virtue and abilities, would have outweighed the memory of all your former ſervices. But his Majeſty is full of juſtice, and underſtands the doctrine of compenſations. He remembers, with gratitude, how ſoon you had accommodated your morals to the neceſſities of his ſervice;---how chearfully you had abandoned the engagements of private friendſhip, and renounced the moſt ſolemn profeſſions to the public. The ſacrifice of Lord Chatham was not loſt upon him. Even the cowardice and perfidy of deſerting him may have done you no diſſervice in his eſteem. The inſtance was painful, but the principle might pleaſe.

You did not neglect the magiſtrate, while you flattered the man. The expulſion of Mr. Wilkes predetermined in the Cabinet;---the power of depriving the ſubject of his birth-right attributed to a reſolution of one branch of the Legiſlature;---the Conſtitution impudently invaded by the Houſe of Commons;---the right of defending it treacherouſly renounced by the Houſe of Lords:---Theſe are the ſtrokes, my Lord, which, in the preſent reign, recommend to office, and conſtitute a Miniſter. They would have determined your Sovereign's judgment, if they had made no impreſſion upon his heart. We need not look for any other ſpecies of merit to account for his taking the earlieſt opportunity to recall you to his councils. Yet you have other merit in abundance.-----Mr. Hine,---the Duke of Portland,---and Mr. Yorke.---Breach of truſt, robbery, and murder. You would think it a compliment to your gallantry, if I added rape to the catalogue;---but the ſtile of your amours ſecures you from reſiſtance. I know how well theſe ſeveral charges have been defended. In the firſt inſtance, the breach of truſt is ſuppoſed to have been it's own reward. Mr. Bradſhaw affirms upon his honour, (and ſo may the gift of ſmiling never depart from him!) that you reſerved no part of Mr. Hine's purchaſe-money for your own uſe, but that every ſhilling of it was ſcrupulouſly paid to Governor Burgoyne.---Make haſte, my Lord;---another patent, applied in time, may keep the OAKS in the family.---If not, Birnham Wood, I fear, muſt come to the Macaroni.

The Duke of Portland was in life your earlieſt friend. In defence of his property he had nothing to plead, but equity, againſt Sir James Lowther, and preſcription againſt the Crown. You felt for your friend; but the law muſt take its courſe. Poſterity will ſcarce believe that Lord Bute's ſon-in-law had barely intereſt enough at the Treaſury to get his grant compleated before the general election.

Enough has been ſaid of that deteſtable tranſaction, which ended in the death of Mr. Yorke.---I cannot ſpeak of it without horror and compaſſion.----To excuſe yourſelf, you publicly impeach your accomplice, and to his mind perhaps the accuſation may be flattery. But in murder you are both principals. It was once a queſtion of emulation, and if the event had not diſappointed the immediate ſchemes of the Cloſet, it might ſtill have been a hopeful ſubject of jeſt and merriment between you.

This letter, my Lord, is only a preface to my future correſpondence. The remainder of the ſummer ſhall be dedicated to your amuſement. I mean now and then to relieve the ſeverity of your morning ſtudies, and to prepare you for the buſineſs of the day. Without pretending to more than Mr. Bradſhaw's ſincerity, you may rely upon my attachment, as long as you are in office.

Will your Grace forgive me, if I venture to expreſs ſome anxiety for a man, whom I know you do not love? My Lord Weymouth has cowardice to plead, and a deſertion of a later date than your own. You know the Privy Seal was intended for him; and if you conſider the dignity of the poſt he deſerted, you will hardly think it decent to quarter him upon Mr. Rigby. Yet he muſt have bread, my Lord;----or rather, he muſt have wine. If you deny him the cup, there will be no keeping him within the pale of the Miniſtry.

JUNIUS.

HAMBURGH, JUNE 4.

WE learn from Mentz, that after a moſt ſtrict ſearch having been made in that Electorate, by order of the Elector, it has been found that the dearth of grain was artificial, ſeveral magazines having been diſcovered, which the Council of Regency has ordered to be brought to market, and have paſſed an ordinance to ſettle the prices, with penalties on thoſe who ſhall tranſgreſs the order.

LOWER ELBE, June 14. It is ſaid, that a body of 40,000 Ruſſians have received orders to march through Poland, in order to join the Ruſſian army.

RATISBON, June 8. We this moment learn, that the Imperial troops are already on their march for Tranſilvania, where the Emperor is to aſſemble an army of 160,000 men, which will extend to the Frontiers of Turky, in order to compel the Belligerant powers to accept of the conditions of peace.

DRESDEN, June 12. The very heavy rains which have lately fallen here, added to the melting of the deep ſnow in the mountains of Bohemia, have cauſed the river Elbe to ſwell to a greater height than has been known in the memory of man. The torrent brought down ſo great a quantity of wood, and with ſuch force, that ſome of the ſmall bridges in the country have been entirely ſwept away. It is thought the produce of corn will be greatly leſſened this year, as the grain is ſo much beaten down by the rain. This will not only be a very unfortunate circumſtance to the inhabitants of Dreſden and this neighbourhood, but alſo to many other parts of Germany; which are now reduced to ſuch a ſcarcity of bread and proviſions as almoſt amounts to a famine. Their hopes of obtaining relief is, by the exportation of corn from Saxony, which muſt probably be prohibited for ſome time, as bread is now ſo dear in ſome parts of the Elector's territories, that the workmen in the mines at Freybergh have threatened an inſurrection, unleſs the price of corn is reduced.

WARSAW, June 12. Yeſterday a courier arrived from the Ruſſian army, with the following letter from Count Romanzow, dated Jaſſy, the 20th of May, O. S. to M. Saldern, Embaſſador from Ruſſia to our Court.

" After the expedition of General Weiſſman againſt Iſatzcia, Major General Potemkin ſignalized himſelf in a like enterprize acroſs the Danube. Having drawn the enemy towards Orcow, he embarked with 600 Grenadiers and 200 Chaſſeurs on ſeveral boats, and landed at four werſts from Cymbra. The Turks, on the firſt appearance of our troops, abandoned that town with ſuch precipitation as to leave their wives and children to our mercy. General Potemkin immediately gave orders to the troops to purſue them, and 300 were found hid in the gardens belonging to the Chriſtians; 82 of them were killed; we loſt one, and had 19 wounded. The General ordered fire to be ſet to four barks, three of which were mounted with four cannon, and the other with five, and 17 ſaiques, as alſo to three magazines of flour, and one of biſcuit. After this, the General returned to his poſt with 100 ſmall barques and 14 batteaus, two of which were laden with proviſions. We have at the ſame time releaſed 2620 Chriſtians, who repaſſed the river with us. The fire of the magazines was driven by the wind to ſome adjacent houſes, which communicating itſelf to the town of Cymbra, it was reduced to aſhes. According to the report of our priſoners, there were 2000 Turks in that place.

FLORENCE, June 10. We learn from Legborn, that the Generaliſſimo Count Orlow is not yet departed for the Levant, as it is thought he only waits for a favourable wind to ſail with the ſhips of his nation, which are yet at Legborn and the neighbouring harbours.

VIENNA, June 12. The court continues to take meaſures, which promiſe very important deſigns, and confirm our politicians in their opinion of a war. They write from Prague, that there is a new fortreſs erected near Siberbergh in Sileſia, and that 6000 workmen are continually employed to open a paſſage from Glatz to Schweidnitz.

WARSAW, June 8. After the engagement between the Ruſſians and the Confederates, General Suworow marched againſt Marſhal Pulawſki, and having advanced near thirty leagues, halted near the fortified town of Zamoſc, in order to ſurprize it. There was an engagement in the ſuburbs, in which the Confederates were routed and purſued in their retreat towards the Palatinate of Cracow.

OTRANTO, May 31. Several ſhips arrived from the Morea bring advice, that the Grand Signor has publiſhed a general pardon in favour of the Greeks who had left his dominions, with an acception of only 17 of their chiefs, who had joined the Ruſſians; and that in conſequence of this, numbers had reſolved to return.

OTRANTO, June 3. The Ruſſian fleet in the Archipelago, conſiſts of 27 ſail, viz. 12 ſhips of the line, 14 frigates, and a bomb-ketch. Each ſhip of the line carries 600 men, the frigates 300. In the iſland of Paros, the Ruſſians have 1800 men encamped on the plain of Carigi, beſides 3000, as well Greeks as Albanians.

MADRID, June 4. Six of our ſhips of war, of 70 guns each, have ſailed from Cadiz for Carthagena, where they are to be diſarmed.

The King has appointed M. Bucarelli, formerly Governor of the Havana, to be Viceroy of Mexico.

LISBON, May 28. The health of the King our gracious Monarch is entirely re-eſtabliſhed.

PARIS, June 21. His Serene Highneſs the Count de Clermont died here on the 16th inſtant.

Mr. Fonton is nominated Intendant of the Finances.

The Duke d'Aguillon is appointed to the ſuperintendency of the Poſt-office, in the room of the Duke de Choiſeul.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 17. In the night between the 5th and 6th inſt. an incendiary was taken who had juſt ſet fire to a houſe in this City, on which he was immediately ſtrangled, and the fire was extinguiſhed. The diſorders of the militia are greater than ever were known; they ſurrounded lately the Kaimachan, from whom they demanded money, and he was obliged to purchaſe his liberty at the price of 60 ſequins. The barbs for the women, which have always, till this period, been regarded as ſacred, have been attacked, ſeveral women have been forced away, and two ladies were very ill treated who were going to them, notwithſtanding every effort to ſave them. Theſe exceſſes continued to the 8th inſt. when the Grand Signor gave orders for the greateſt part of the militia and mariners to embark on board the ſhips in the harbour, and to bring their arms on ſhore; at the ſame time an order was iſſued, giving leave to any perſon attacked to defend themſelves. Two days after, like orders were publiſhed at Galata and Pera, when the ſhops were ordered to be opened, and permiſſion given to the Chriſtians, not only to defend themſelves, but to act offenſively againſt any that ſhould inſult them. This order had a happy effect, 30 of the ring-leaders have been ſtrangled, and we now enjoy tranquility.

The plague has manifeſted itſelf afreſh, not only in this capital, but in the ſuburbs.

DANTZICK, June 15. The Pruſſian troops have afreſh entered into Werder, and other juriſdictions of this City, where they exact heavy contributions, which have reduced the inhabitants to the greateſt indigence. More than 100 barques, laden with grain from Poland, which have performed a rigorous ſix weeks quarantine, are arrived, and more are ſoon expected.

GENOA, June 5. We learn from Corſica, that Count Marbeuf has ſet his troops in motion, in order to hunt down the Malcontents under Durazzo. The people of Sartana have ſhot and killed the French Attorney General in that iſland.

LONDON, JUNE 21.

BY the ſurvey already made, of ſome of the Dock-Yards and ſhipping, it appears, there are 60 ſhips of the line fit for immediate ſervice.

Tueſday, a young Lady, daughter to a gentleman of fortune at Richmond, jumped out of a two pair of ſtairs window, and broke her legs; the reaſon ſhe gives for committing this raſh action, was owing to her being diſappointed in marriage; ſhe owns that ſhe had attempted a few days before to drown herſelf, but not meeting with a proper opportunity, took the above method to end her days; but ſhe is thought to be in a fair way of recovery.

JUNE 22. His Majeſty has appointed Thomas Whateley, Eſq; now Secretary to the Earl of Suffolk, to be ſurveyor of his Majeſty's private roads, in the room of the Hon. Finch Hatton, Eſq; deceaſed.

It may be depended on, that a ſingle elderly gentleman of conſiderable fortune, near Frome, in Somerſetſhire, has bequeathed an eſtate to Mr. Wilkes of 1200l. per annum after his deceaſe; and it is ſaid, that he has already preſented the Patriot with a genteel preſent as a reward for his ſervices.

On Thurſday night about eleven o'clock the Chevalier D'Eon, whoſe extraordinary diſapperance, above ſix weeks ago, has been the ſubject of much converſation and enquiry, arrived in good health at his houſe in Petty-France, Weſtminſter; and immediately wrote a letter to Mr. Fountain, in Litchfield-ſtreet, of which the following is a tranſlation.

' I arrive this moment from Germany, my dear Fountain, ' very much fatigued. I have great need to go to bed. Pray ' deliver to Coutain, my Valet de Chambre, the keys of my ' apartments. I have ſeen at Hamburgh, in one of the Engliſh ' papers, what your heart has done for me during my abſence. ' I was ſo affected by it as to ſhed tears. This has determined ' me to return to England ſooner than I hoped, to thank my ' real friends, like you, and to puniſh the inſolence of ſuch im- ' pertinents as have, during my abſence, calumniated me.

' Good night. I reckon you will come and ſee me ſome time ' to-morrow. LE CHEVALIER D'EON.'

Mr. Fountain accordingly waited on the Chevalier yeſterday morning.

The Chevalier, during his abſence, has travelled above 600 miles in Germany.

Yeſterday morning, the daughter of an eminent tradeſman in Wardour-ſtreet, Soho, was found hanging in her bed-chamber; the cauſe was her being with child by a lover, who deſerted her.

Mr. Thomas Bradſhaw, miniſter to the Junto, has juſt bought of the Duke of Athol for four thouſand pounds, a houſe for his town reſidence, oppoſite to Lord Bute's, in South Audley-ſtreet.---Whether as a Spy upon, or a Counſellor of, his Old Patron, future events will determine.

Yeſterday Lord Holderneſſe carried the Prince of Wales to ſee Greenwich, &c. and to ſail in one of the yachts, in order to ſee the ſhipping; Which is more than his father has ever ſeen, though he has for ten years governed a great maritime power.

It is hardly conceivable how much pleaſure the diviſions in the City have afforded at the Court. The Miniſtry plume themſelves greatly on the ſucceſs of their Shelburnean intrigue; and now fancy themſelves quite ſure of carrying their point, and bringing the City under their abſolute ſubjection. They have reſolved to humble my Lord Mayor, for his daring to aſſert and ſupport the rights and franchiſes of the City; and have, in their warm imaginations, already devoted poor Wilkes, deſerted and abandoned by his once ſeeming friends, to perpetual perſecution and impriſonment.---It is generally agreed, that nothing can obſtruct the execution of the deſigns of the Miniſtry, but the brave ſpirit and ſteady integrity of the Livery; and to prevent the exertion of that, a multitude of miniſterial agents are now traverſing every corner of the City, and trying every method of ſeduction; but whether the baneful corruption of the Miniſtry, or the firm virtue of the Livery will prevail, cannot be known, till the important deciſion at Midſummer-day.

The French and Spaniſh fleets, now in the Mediterranean, amount to above ſixteen capital ſhips of the line, excluſive of frigates, ſloops, and advice-boats; the latter of which are provided for fighting, the ſame as in time of war.

A peace is at laſt finally concluded between the Dey of Algiers and the King of Denmark, through the mediation of the Sardinian Court.

Andrew Wauchope, Eſq; is appointed a Captain in the firſt, or King's regiment of Dragoon guards, commanded by Lieut. General Moſtyn.

Thomas Batt, Eſq; is appointed a Captain in the 18th regiment of foot, commanded by Sir John Sebright.

JUNE 25. This day a writ was iſſued for the electing a Knight of the ſhire for the county of Lancaſter, in the room of the late Lord Strange.

The following is a copy of the letter left by the young gentleman of Lombard-ſtreet (who put an end to his life at his garden near the City Road) directed to his wife:

" MY DEAR, AS we all know there muſt be a ſeparation of ſoul and body, ſo it matters not whether it is to-day or to-morrow. The misfortunes of my life (owing ſolely to my own indiſcretion) are inſupportable. I am therefore determined to put an end to it; and before this reaches you, I ſhall be no more. To leave the world is nothing; but it is you, my dear adored, that makes me loth to quit this ſtage of life; but my laſt prayer ſhall be for your welfare. I am now going to launch into the boundleſs ocean of eternity.----Had I taken your advice, it had not come to this; but being curſed with an Epicurean ſperſe, I went to all the extravagant entertainments, beſides following every faſhionable vice of the preſent age, beyond what my fortune could ſupport. I muſt now, my dear, take my leave of you for ever. I hope I am not too haſty; and will conclude with what Cato ſaid upon the like occaſion: O ye powers that ſearch the heart of man, and weigh his inmoſt thoughts, if I have done amiſs, impute it not.----The beſt may err."

The mock ſea-fight, which was intended to have been this month at Portſmouth, for the entertainment of their Majeſties, is poſtponed.

John Faſhion, Gent. is appointed a Lieutenant in the 1ſt (or King's) regiment of dragoon guards, commanded by Lieut. General Moſtyn.

John Yorke, Eſq; is appointed Captain of a company in the 33d regiment of foot, commanded by Earl Cornwallis.

JUNE 26. Copy of a Note ſent to a gentleman in the city, the original is in the hands of a Liveryman, who will be on the Huſtings this day during the poll.

"Mr. Robinſon preſents his compliments to Mr. Smith. Mr. Harley meets his Ward publickly to-day to ſupport Aldermen Plumbe and Kirkman.

"The Friends of Government will be very active; and it is earneſtly deſired that you will be ſo good as to exert yourſelf to the utmoſt of your power to ſupport theſe Aldermen. It is thought that it will be advantageous to puſh the Poll to-day with as many friends as poſſible; therefore it is deſired you will purſue that conduct. Mr. Harley will be early in the City to-day, and to be heard of at his counting-houſe in Barge-yard, Bucklerſbury; and if you or ſuch perſon as you intruſt in this matter could ſee him to conſult thereon, it might be beneficial to the cauſe.

JUNE 27. Yeſterday the Hon. and Rev. Brownlow North, kiſſed the King's hand, on being appointed Biſhop of Litchfield and Coventry.

Yeſterday a great number of felons under ſentence of tranſportation, (among whom were the two Kennedys) were conveyed from Newgate, and delivered on board the veſſel deſtined to carry them to America.

BOSTON, AUGUST 15.

THE GREAT OCCASION we have of men of war being ſtationed here, makes it neceſſary for his Majeſty to have a dry dock in theſe parts, which we hear is ſoon to be conſtructed.

Yeſterday ſailed his Majeſty's ſloop of war Bonetta for New-Providence.

AUGUST 19. Monday afternoon arrived in King's Road, the Honourable John Montagu, Eſq; Rear-Admiral of his Majeſty's Blue Squadron, in his Majeſty's ſhip the Captain; the Lively, Tamer and Swan, which ſailed from England with the Admiral, are alſo arrived. The Halifax armed ſchooner, with diſpatches, alſo the Canſo with the Admiral's baggage, both ſailed before the men of war, but are not yet arrived here.

There are now in this harbour the following ſhips of war, viz. Captain, with a blue flag at mizen-top-maſt head, 64 guns, Rear Admiral Montagu, Captain Simmonds; Saliſbury, with a broad pendant at main-top-maſt head, 50, Commodore Gambier, Captain Berkley; Liverpool, 24, Captain Talbot; Roſe, 20, Captain Caldwell; Gibraltar, 20, Captain Sir Thomas Rich; Tamer, 18, Captain Hay; Beaver, 16, Captain Linzee; Swan, 18, Captain Ayſcough; Senegal, 16, Captain Blair; Hope ſchooner, 8, Captain Dawſon; Gaſpee Schooner, 8, Captain Dudingſton.

On the arrival of the Admiral, the ſalutes were reſpectively paid by the ſeveral ſhips in the harbour. The day following the Admiral came up to town in the barge, with his lady, daughter, &c.

We hear that the Honourable Commodore Gambier, in his Majeſty's ſhip Saliſbury, as alſo the Roſe and the Senegal, are ſoon to ſail for Halifax, and from thence to England.

NEW-PORT, (Rhode-Iſland) AUGUST 19.

Laſt Tueſday a ſhip, built on a new conſtruction, for carrying home to England a large quantity of timber, was launched at Warren, in this colony.---She was partly loaded before launching, with timber framed in, ſo as to be almoſt ſolid, and is to be filled up in the ſame manner; by which means, though ſhe will meaſure but about 160 tons carpenter's tonnage, 'tis ſaid ſhe will carry upwards of 1200 tons of timber. This veſſel is built on the plan contrived by Mr. Levi, who has a patent for building this ſort of veſſels, which are called Rafts.

Laſt Wedneſday arrived here the Brig Sally, Captain Nathan Read, in 25 days from Jamaica, with whom came paſſengers, George Lawrence, Eſq; his Lady, and Miſs Polly Wait.

NEW-YORK, AUGUST 19.

Tueſday night laſt Capt. Crane arrived here from Newbern, in North-Carolina, in ten days, with whom came paſſenger Col. Fanning, of that place.

A mandamus was received by the laſt packet, appointing William Axtell, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Council for this province, in the room of the Hon. Joſeph Reade, Eſq; deceaſed; who was accordingly ſworn in on Wedneſday the 7th inſtant.

AUGUST 26. Laſt Monday evening was married at Shrewſbury, in Eaſt New-Jerſey, James De Lancey, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives of this city in General Aſſembly, and ſon of the Hon. James De Lancey, Eſq; late Lieutenant-Governor of this province, of beloved memory, to Miſs Allen, daughter of the Hon. William Allen, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of Pennſylvania, a beautiful young lady, in poſſeſſion of every intellectual virtue.

SEPTEMBER 2. Captain Fairly, in the ſloop Nancy, from Jamaica, the 22d of July, off the Grand Commanders, ſpoke the 27th ult. with a Spaniſh tranſport, from the Havana for Cadiz, who had run aſhore on the Martiers, but had got off again with the aſſiſtance of Capt. Fairly: She was part of a fleet of ten ſail under convoy of two men of war, two more of which fleet were aſhore likewiſe near the ſame place, as alſo Capt. Dudley, from Jamaica for Liverpool, but the latter got off.

Thurſday laſt his Excellency Lord Dunmore arrived here from Albany; and we hear ſets out for his Government of Virginia in a few days by land.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 29.

Captain Cochran, from Dominica, informs, that on the 24th of July, they had a very hard gale of wind there from E. N. E. to E. S. E. which laſted about twelve hours, attended with very heavy rain, that cauſed the waters to riſe at Roſeau, which carried away a quantity of lumber, and did other damage; that about twelve ſail of veſſels then in the harbour, were drove out to ſea; but they were all returned except two before he ſailed, without any other damage than ſome of them loſing their anchors and cables.

Captain Delap, from Newfoundland, informs, that Commodore Byron, in his Majeſty's ſhip Panther of 60 guns, was arrived there to take on him the command of that ſtation; the other veſſels that ſailed with him were not arrived.

SEPTEMBER 5. Captain Campbell, from South-Carolina, off Charles-Town Bar, the 15th ult. fell in with a Spaniſh ſnow, full of ſoldiers, &c. who informed him that ſhe belonged to a fleet of 13 ſail, who were bound from La Vera Cruz and the Havana for Cadiz, with the troops that were relieved from the Mexican ſtation; but on the 5th or 6th ult. a ſhip and ſnow ran on ſhore on Cape-Florida, where they are loſt, from whence the above ſnow took all the people, being about 80 in number, with as much ſpecie, &c. as poſſible, with which they were proceeding on their voyage; but falling ſhort of proviſions, the ſnow put into Cape Look Out, in North Carolina, where Capt. Campbell was alſo obliged by contrary winds to put in, and informs that the Spaniſh ſnow landed all the ſeamen and officers belonging to the wrecks, leaving none on board but their own compliment, being a regiment of grenadiers, &c.----It is computed the Spaniards, landed at North-Carolina, have with them in ſpecie above half a million of dollars, part of which they plundered from the wrecks.---The ſnow alſo diſcharged Captain Fiſher, his mate, and eight other Engliſhmen, who they were taking to Old Spain to put on board the gallies. Capt. Fiſher informed Capt. Campbell, that he and his people were taken out of a ſloop on the coaſt of Cuba, belonging to Charles-Town, South-Carolina, about three years ago, and had been confined in a goal at the Havana ever ſince.

Yeſterday arrived here Captain Biddle, in 16 days from Hiſpaniola, who informs, that they have had there a ſmall ſhock of an earthquake almoſt every day for this two months paſt; and about three weeks before he ſailed they had one pretty ſevere, which threw down ſeveral houſes at Port-au-Prince.

The Univerſity of Dublin has been lately pleaſed to confer the degree of Doctor of Divinity, on the Rev. Philip Hughes, Rector of Cheſter pariſh, Kent county, Maryland.

NEWBERN, (North Carolina) AUGUST 23.

Since our laſt arrived in Cape Look-out Bay, in a diſtreſſed condition, a Spaniſh ſnow, having on board the crews of two regiſter ſhips, which were caſt away on the Bahama banks, on their paſſage from the Havana to Old Spain. They have ſaved all the money which was on board the regiſter ſhips (an immenſe ſum) which the ſnow has now on board. There are one hundred and eighty Spaniards on board, with four Engliſh priſoners, who were taken in the illicit trade on the Spaniſh coaſt. They are in want of all kinds of proviſions, which they pay very liberally for.

By a veſſel in a ſhort paſſage from Philadelphia we have a certain account, that Harmon Huſbands is now in Wilmington, a little town juſt below Philadelphia, goes much in public, and is highly careſſed by a multitude, who he every day entertains with the tragical ſtory of Governor Tryon's maſſacre of his brethren in iniquity in North-Carolina, and is undoubtedly the author of many extraordinary publications we find in the Pennſylvania Journal. It ſhould ſeem exceedingly unaccountable, that a perſon of Harmon Huſbands's addreſs and penetration, ſhould be able to induce ſuch a number of people, who we find eſpouſing his cauſe, to believe, that the Governor of this province, chief of his Majeſty's Council, near forty members of the Aſſembly, and a very conſiderable number of gentlemen of the firſt fortunes and families in this province, who were in the battle at Alamance, ſhould all be corrupted, all in a league to harraſs and oppreſs a ſet of harmleſs induſtrious men, who were ſtriving hard againſt the iron hand of oppreſſion? The doctrine is abſurd and ridiculous. The leaſt reflection muſt compel a belief, that ſomething was wrong, ſomething amiſs among theſe people, eſpecially when among the provincial laws of the province, publiſhed by authority, are to be found acts for redreſſing and removing every grievance that could poſſibly have an exiſtence among them.

BASSATERRE, (St. Chriſtophers) JULY 27.

Extract of a letter from St. Euſtatius, July 20.

"This is to inform you, that we have juſt received advice, that Mr. Bloyden's ſloop is taken by the Spaniards with a full load of turtle, and that the turtlers to the number of 32 men were carried to St. Domingo as ſlaves. Mr. Thomas Low's ſchooner was at the ſame place, and was obliged to cut and run, fearing they ſhould ſhare the ſame fate."

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) AUGUST 3.

Having in our paper of the 13th of July laſt, given an account of the ill treatment of Engliſh ſubjects by the Spaniards, we ſhall now, in order to ſtrengthen and corroborate what we before publiſhed, give the caſe of Anthony Stanley, who ſaith, That on the 5th day of March, 1769, he ſailed from St. Anns, on board the ſchooner Induſtry, whereof he was then maſter, in order to fiſh for or procure turtle, on the coaſt of Cuba; and that, on the 7th of ſaid month, his veſſel was taken and ſeized by a ſchooner belonging to his Catholic Majeſty, when he was carried and put in goal at St. Jago de Cuba, where he was tried, and remained a priſoner eight months, having only one ryal per day to ſubſiſt on; that he was then tranſported to Carthagena, and put into the King's works, having his legs loaded with heavy irons, where he was obliged to work, under the directions of Indians and Negroes, in carrying ſtone, ſand, and other materials, to keep out the ſea, and ſecure the town; that on the 24th of April laſt, endeavouring to make his eſcape, he was detected, brought back, and loaded with additional chains and irons; and that, being afterwards very ſick, he applied to the commander of the works to be ſent to the hoſpital, but received for anſwer, he might die and be damned; that at night he was locked up with thieves and murderers, having an iron bar of 60 feet long run through his chains, and was frequently flogged and beat in an unmerciful manner; that he remained in this direful ſituation till the ſecond day of June laſt, when, about 7 o'clock in the morning, he was ſent for from the works, when his chains were taken off, and about 9 the ſame morning he was releaſed from his irons, and put on board a ſloop belonging to this iſland, leaving behind him a number of his unhappy countrymen in the greateſt diſtreſs.

"THE Inhabitants of this Continent have now an eaſy and advantageous Opportunity of effectually encouraging literary Manufactures in the Britiſh Colonies, at moderate Prices, calculated for this Meridian, the Eſtabliſhment of which will abſolutely and eventually produce mental Improvement, and commercial Expanſion, with the additional Recommendation of poſitively ſaving Thouſands of Pounds to and among the Inhabitants of the Britiſh Empire in America. Thus, the Importation of One Thouſand Sets of Blackſtone's Commentaries, *manufactured in Europe, at Ten Pounds per Set, is ſending very near Ten Thouſand Pounds across the great Atlantic Ocean. LANDS FOR SALE,

By public outcry, at the vendue-houſe in Charles-Town, on Thurſday the 3d day of October next, at 12 o'clock,

A Tract on ACCABEE, one of the moſt beautifully ſituated country ſeats in this province, not more than ſeven miles from Charles-Town by land, and about the ſame diſtance by water. The whole contains four hundred acres, three hundred of which are in oak and pine wood, the reſt in paſture under fence. The dwelling-houſe on it is of brick, with a large hall and parlour on the ground floor, and a paſſage and ſtairs in an entry between both; there are four bed-chambers above them, excluſive of the garret which has two unfiniſhed rooms. The cellar is very convenient for a kitchen, being built and uſed for that purpoſe. On the ſouth front of the houſe is a new piazza, which overlooks an unimproved garden quite down to the delightful river on which the whole is ſituated. Oppoſite to the houſe and garden, the river is computed to be upwards of a mile wide, and abounds with a variety of fiſh, oyſters, &c. As there is plenty of wood, bricks may be made to advantage, and the number now at the landing will be a ſufficient recommendation of the quality of the clay, &c. Vaſt quantities of lime may likewiſe be burnt, the ſhell banks being very contigious to the landings, and the wood not far to cart.

A Tract at STONO, St. Paul's pariſh, butting and bounding, eaſtward and ſouthward on lands belonging to the eſtate of the late Robert McKewn, Eſq; and lands of James Stanyarne, Eſq; weſtward and northward on lands of Mr. Iſaac Nichols, deceaſed, and Algernon Wilſon, Eſq.

This Tract contains four hundred acres, and is principally adapted for the culture of indico, corn, &c. the ſoil being looſe and fertile, it will alſo anſwer for moſt European grain; about ſeventy acres has been cleared, and a tolerable plantation houſe on it, but being rented out to ſeveral tenants, ſhoemakers, &c. it has been much abuſed, and at preſent is out of repair. It is well timbered with oak and pine, and its diſtance from the public landing at Friend Town, ſcarce exceeds two miles.

Another Tract at STONO, about a mile nearer the public landing than the above, containing by a re-ſurvey three hundred and ſeventy-five acres, butting and bounding north-eaſtwardly on land belonging to William Elliott, Eſq; (called Winners;) north-weſtwardly on land belonging to the eſtate of Robert McKewn, Eſq; ſouth-eaſtwardly on lands belonging to Frederick Grimke, Eſq; and ſouth-weſtwardly on lands belonging to Charles Elliott, Eſq. This is a very compact tract, fit for indico, corn and rice; a great part of this ſmall tract is in wood of oak, hickory, and pine, and affords good cooper ſtuff for any of the adjacent rice plantations. On it is a pretty good dwelling houſe, now rented to Mr. Joſeph Dandridge.

A long credit will be given, if deſired, paying intereſt from the delivery of the titles.

BARNARD ELLIOTT.

LANDS FOR SALE,

By public outcry, at the vendue-houſe in Charles-Town, on Thurſday the 3d day of October next, at 12 o'clock,

A Tract on ACCABEE, one of the moſt beautifully ſituated country ſeats in this province, not more than ſeven miles from Charles-Town by land, and about the ſame diſtance by water. The whole contains four hundred acres, three hundred of which are in oak and pine wood, the reſt in paſture under fence. The dwelling houſe on it is of brick, with a large hall and parlour on the ground floor, and a paſſage and ſtairs in an entry between both; there are four bed-chambers above them, excluſive of the garret which has two unfiniſhed rooms. The cellar is very convenient for a kitchen, being built and uſed for that purpoſe. On the ſouth front of the houſe is a new piazza, which overlooks an unimproved garden quite down to the delightful river on which the whole is ſituated. Oppoſite to the houſe and garden, the river is computed to be upwards of a mile wide, and abounds with a variety of fiſh, oyſters, &c. As there is plenty of wood, bricks may be made to advantage, and the number now at the landing will be a ſufficient recommendation of the quality of the clay, &c. Vaſt quantities of lime may likewiſe be burnt, the ſhell banks being very contigious to the landings, and the wood not far to cart.

A Tract at STONO, St. Paul's pariſh, butting and bounding, eaſtward and ſouthward on lands belonging to the eſtate of the late Robert McKewn, Eſq; and lands of James Stanyarne, Eſq; weſtward and northward on lands of Mr. Iſaac Nichols, deceaſed, and Algernon Wilſon, Eſq.

This Tract contains four hundred acres, and is principally adapted for the culture of indico, corn, &c. the ſoil being looſe and fertile, it will alſo anſwer for moſt European grain; about ſeventy acres has been cleared, and a tolerable plantation houſe on it, but being rented out to ſeveral tenants, ſhoemakers, &c. it has been much abuſed, and at preſent is out of repair. It is well timbered with oak and pine, and its diſtance from the public landing at Friend Town, ſcarce exceeds two miles.

Another Tract at STONO, about a mile nearer the public landing than the above, containing by a reſurvey three hundred and ſeventy-five acres, butting and bounding north-eaſtwardly on land belonging to William Elliott, Eſq; (called Winners;) north-weſtwardly on land belonging to the eſtate of Robert McKewn, Eſq; ſouth-eaſtwardly on lands belonging to Frederick Grimke, Eſq; and ſouth-weſtwardly on lands belonging to Charles Elliott, Eſq. This is a very compact tract, fit for indico, corn and rice; a great part of this ſmall tract is in wood of oak, hickory, and pine, and affords good cooper ſtuff for any of the adjacent rice plantations. On it is a pretty good dwelling houſe, now rented to Mr. Joſeph Dandridge.

A long credit will be given, if deſired, paying intereſt from the delivery of the titles.
